

We need rules in place that serve the public, rather than corporate, interest. I oppose rewriting the law to create more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.